2022 Gay Games Information

The BGBL is looking into possibly sending a Team to the Gay Games November 11-19, 2022.

This would be an amazing opportunity to represent Boston and the LGBTQ+ community abroad. The BGBL is dedicated to supporting those members who would be interested in this once and a lifetime opportunity and experience through financial fundraising opportunities and sponsorship.

If you are interested- please take a moment and fill out the below link:

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION COMMITTEE

The BGBL is still looking for a few more volunteer Leaders to be a part of the new Committee.

As part of this inaugural committee, set to begin in Fall 2021, you will play a key role in continuing the fight for equality and furthering the discussions on how to improve the BGBL mission with a specific emphasis on racial injustices.

Heroes Among Us Award

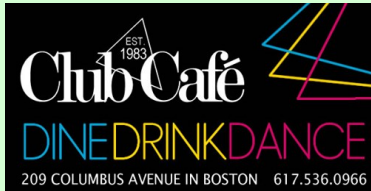

A great evening was had earlier this month at the Boston Celtics game, as Marc Davino received the Heroes Among Us Award in front of a limited attendance on Pride Night.

Marc has played in every season in the BGBL, a Hall of Famer both within the League and Nationally (NGBA).

Great job Marc- we are so proud of you!!!!

In attendance to support Marc's achievement were: Kevin Quincy, Buck Bachman, and Bob Quist.

The BGBL is looking for a website slogan. Please submit all entries by clicking the link below with your full name and suggested slogan.

If you have the winning slogan selection, you will receive a $25 gift card to Club Cafe.

The Board will be voting next month, so get your entries in.

Some suggested slogans already:

One League, One Goal
We Back
Run as One
Come Out & Play
More Than Just Basketball

TIPS FOR STARTING UP BASKETBALL AGAIN

- Get in shape. Basketball is a physically challenging sport so it's best to be in as good a condition as possible.
- Practice. There is no substitute for practice.
- Dribble with your weak hand.
- Practice Shooting every day.
- Vertical jump training.
- Don't dribble too hard.
- Master some skills, then move onto others.
- Get a good Coach and study other players.
